BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

★ HOW TO WIN:—Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.—Psalm 37:3, 5.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT.

A few would-be reformers or would-be destroyers of all that America holds dear have organized what they term a new political party, which we will not dignify by naming. While lambasting every one who has done anything worth while and upholding those who have been convicted of crime and punished, it goes on to give some of the conditions of belonging to the party.

"Each member of the party contributes one dollar every four months to promote its success. A person cannot take part in the selection of any candidate for public office for the party without having contributed one dollar towards the expense of the organization three months prior to the date of the primary or convention at which candidates of that party are selected."

Every American citizen is a free man, and he holds the right to vote as his inherited right, and this right is not conditioned upon paying so much a month. Any political party which bases membership upon the payment of a fee is undemocratic, un-American and contrary to the very principles on which our nation was founded. How any set of men can expect other men to pay to belong to a political party that has never done anything and refuses to take part, without having to pay, in a party that is already a going concern is more than we can grasp. Each man is a free agent in other parties, and the majority in either party can control the policies of that party, as the rule of the majority has never been questioned. But according to these fellows, it is necessary to pay three dollars a year to have a part in the political party in the freest land in the world.

This is a sample of the appeal for money the leaders of the so-called party make.

"Do you want to put an end to judicial dishonesty? It is the king-pin in the predatory machinery of monopolistic greed. Do you want to put an end to autocratic control of the medium of exchange? Having the power to prevent or create financial panics, it created the recent financial depression."

After laying the foundation with this kind of rot and a lot more like it, they give their own answer:

"If you do, you will contribute a dollar each four months to pay the expense of maintaining the political party which advocates the political means for accomplishing such ends."

In other words, they are asking the hard working man and woman to donate money to keep themselves in fat jobs in a fruitless attempt to do what they could do for nothing by other means.

AN IMMIGRATION SUGGESTION.

The percentage immigration law has been generally recognized as an experiment. It is a temporary measure and new legislation will be necessitated by the expiration of the limit fixed for its operation.

Its beneficial results are reflected in a statement of immigration officials that more than three-quarters of a million people who would otherwise have been dumped into the country during a period of population congestion have been excluded. That this exclusion has worked hardship in many individual cases where families have been kept separated because the national percentage had been exhausted and those members still abroad could not be brought to this country it is proved by facts.

These facts have been so convincing that Chairman Johnson of the house immigration committee has suggested a radical modification of the laws, to base immigration on blood relationship, at least until the separated families have been reunited. How long that will require can be computed with reasonable accuracy.

It is also self-evident that no good end is achieved by keeping those families separated, if immigration is to be permitted at all. To admit immigrants who have no relatives here and keep out a corresponding number who have, will not solve any of the problems of Americanization.

The absolute prohibition of immigration for a given period would cut the Gordian knot, of course, but that has not been proposed. Some of the smaller nations have already reached the point where none of their nationals can be legally admitted for six months to come.

It would seem probable, therefore, that the humanitarian issues involved in the problem will cause Chairman Johnson's suggestion to receive the most serious consideration, and it is highly creditable that it has already done so. "The committee on immigration," says Mr. Johnson, "has the problem of the heart of the world in its hands," and that is a splendidly American phrase.—Kansas City Journal.

For the past half century people have preached the doctrine of raising a living at home, but in Pontotoc county no further urging is now needed. Every farmer one meets is planning to do that very thing. Looks like the one crop system is to be a thing of the past here.

The Negro and Education

(Daily Ardmoreite)

Negro illiteracy in Oklahoma is 12.4 percent, white illiteracy is 2.3 percent, according to a report issued recently by a commission on negroes that has completed a survey of education in the state.

The significant point of the report is the fact that the negroes found that illiteracy, in their race, bore a direct relationship with crime. There are 478 negroes in the penitentiary out of a population of 149,408 in the state. The white race shows 996 inmates from a population of 1,821,194.

A summary of the report indicates that 3.9 percent of the white persons in Carter county are illiterate while 15.3 percent of the blocks can neither read nor write. In fourteen of the largest counties of the state it was found that one white person out of every forty is wholly illiterate while five out of every forty negroes can neither read nor write.

There is food for thought in this report for both negro and white man. The dawn of reason for hundreds in Oklahoma, in Carter county, is yet to come. The problem is not new but its age alone commands to the serious consideration of every thoughtful citizen.

New York Telegraph: Harry Barrett Chamberlain, operating director of the crime commission in Chicago, is quoted as saying that "privation and want actuate so few crimes as to be almost negligible." He continues: "Chicago criminals are criminals by choice. They participate in unlawful enterprises because it is profitable to do so. This is a direct thrust at that amiable and numerically strong contingent who can find an excuse for almost every offense against the code. The criminal out of jail is held up as a person who 'never had a chance,' and in jail as a person who should be 'coddled,' so that he may be persuaded to turn from his evil ways. As a matter of truth, no one denies that misfortune and want have at times moved men to commit crime, but such casuals of the underworld do not 'belong' and rarely are they guilty of violence; they steal in a petty way to gratify immediate wants. Fully 90 percent of those who war on society are, as Mr. Chamberlain says, criminals by choice. It is a business with them. They are not victims of circumstances and they have no desire to reform. In conclusion, the director uses plain speech, which as well as applied to New York as well as Chicago. The same conditions exist. He says: 'While the punishment of the individual murderer, burglar, bandit, automobile thief and other social cultures is necessary as a crime deterrent, it is of no permanent value unless the law acts with equal certainty and swiftness against all violators. And ably assisting these are the jury fixer, the man who refuses to prosecute, the professional bondsman and that most infectious agent of all, the unethical criminal lawyer.'

A Queer Fellow.

(Wichita Eagle)

This Henry Ford is a queer fellow. He has just bought a bankrupt automobile factory, largely because he likes the men who built up the business. He pays eight million dollars for the insolvent business and will operate it with the old proprietors in charge under him.

The first thing Henry will do will be to make a radical cut in the price of cars turned out at the factory. Next will be to raise the wages of all workers in the factory.

Queer fellow, isn't he? Still, he makes money at it. That's the way he did with the railroad he bought. He slashed the rates and raised the wages. The government made him raise some of the rates again, because his six-percent-guarantee competitors were howling about this rank outsider breaking all the rules in the game by lowering rates without being compelled to do so.

Henry is the only man in America with the combination of nerve, skill and money to make Muscle Shoals go. Yet he is being fought at every step by politicians and selfish interest that are afraid of Henry's competition. Yes, he's a queer fellow, and it's no wonder some folk call him an anarchist.

Blue, Blue Violet To Meet in Connection With Red Red Rose

(By the Associated Press)

STILLWATER, Feb. 9.—The Blue Blue Violet, sister organization of the Red Red Rose, men's pedagogic fraternity, plans to expand into an Oklahoma grand lodge at the time of the state teachers convention in Oklahoma City, February 9 to 11, according to an announcement of the organization's founders.

An initiation and banquet are planned as part of the week's program. A state charter already has been obtained, six local conclaves have been organized and the Blue Blue Violet has been recognized by the grand lodge of the Red Red Rose as a companion order. If arrangements can be completed in time the grand lodge will be launched at the time representatives of various cities and counties are admitted at Oklahoma City.

The Red Red Rose, the men's fraternity, originated at the Southeastern State Teachers college in 1918. It now has more than 2,000 members, according to Dr. Hilton I. Jones, chemist at the Oklahoma A. and M. college, who is grand mucus of the grand lodge. The Blue Blue Violet was formed by women faculty members of the A. and M. College in December.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. (adv.)

TULSA—The county excise board recently approved unanimously a budget of $113,110.82 asked by the city for municipal governmental expenses during the remainder of the fiscal year. None of the money will come from taxes. Fines, license fees, forfeited bonds and other "collectables" will be used to supply the needed cash.

BOUNDARY LINE BUT ONE PHASE OF STATE FUSS

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 9.—The legal conflict between Oklahoma and Texas to determine the exact location of the line that separates the two states along the Red River is but one phase of the boundary litigation to which the two states are parties, according to S. P. Freeling, formerly state attorney general and now special counsel representing Oklahoma in the case. Mr. Freeling recently returned from Washington where he appeared as the attorney general of this state in the case.

After the Red River matter is finally settled there will still remain the determination of the western boundary of Oklahoma from the southwestern corner of the state to the point at which the Oklahoma panhandle extends westward from the main part of the state. This litigation grows out of the fact that a survey made in 1903 by Arthur S. Kidder, head of the United States geological survey, revealed the fact that the line originally run as the boundary between Oklahoma and Texas along the western side of this state was far out of line, being from 2,000 to 4,000 feet west of where it should have been.

The original survey was made in 1858. Mr. Kidder found that the monument at the 100th meridian, which strikes Oklahoma exactly at the southwest corner, was 4,000 feet west of its proper location. This inaccuracy grows less toward the north until it becomes only half as great. According to Mr. Freeling, more than 30,000 acres are involved, worth considerably in excess of $1,000,000.

Texas has filed a bill in the supreme court attacking the present boundary, and Oklahoma has filed an answer, Mr. Freeling said. He added that it is probable the case will not come up for hearing within a year. Although not involving the wealth that is in dispute in the Red River litigation, the western boundary question affects the homes of several thousand persons. Many have been born, married and have died in this strip of land, Mr. Freeling declared, and all the records of the communities affected have been made official in Oklahoma. Should the boundary be disturbed after having remained so long as it now is, untold confusion would result, he declared.

STAGE PEOPLE STALLING STREET HUNTING WORK
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—There are today more unemployed actors and other stage people walking along Broadway and other main streets looking for jobs than ever before. Several well-known managers estimated today that half of the 15,000 actors in the United States, exclusive of vaudeville performers, were out of work. The Actors Equity association had a smaller estimate.

Girl Will Testify At Hearing Against Gov. Lee M. Russell

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—If there is a legislative investigation of the charges brought against Lee M. Russell, of Mississippi, by Miss Frances Birkhead, who has filed suit against the governor for $100,000, on a charge of seduction she will be willing to testify against him, she said today in a statement to a local newspaper.

"I think it is only fair to all concerned, the state of Mississippi, the plaintiff and the defendant, that I testify at any hearing which the legislature may order," the statement said.

DOCTOR ORDERED WOMAN OBEYED

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and is Now Well

Chicago, Illinois.—"You surely gave women one good medicine when you put Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on the market. After I had my baby I was all run down and so nervous it kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, then he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a new woman. I have had three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You are certainly doing good work in this world."—Mrs. ADRIEN TOMSBECK, 10667 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

There is nothing very strange about the doctor directing Mrs. Tomsbeck to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are many physicians who do recommend it and highly appreciate its value.

Women who are nervous, run down, and suffering from women's ailments should give this well-known root and herb medicine a trial. Mrs. Tomsbeck's experience should guide you towards health.

Attorney Cries That Judge Was Governed By Outside Forces

(By the Associated Press)
OKMULGEE, Feb. 9.—The superior court grand jury impeached for the purpose of investigating primarily the affairs of the defunct Bank of Commerce, was discharged by Judge Christopher this morning.

The grand jury was discharged on a demurrer to the Indian Agent E. J. Kersting, and W. L. Williams, Henryetta election officer.

The court room scene following the announcement of the court was perhaps unparalleled in the history of Oklahoma courts. Mounting a bench, County Attorney James Hepburn bitterly attacked the action of the court.

With his finger pointed at the person of Judge Christopher as he retired from the court room, Mr. Hepburn shouted: "Never again will I call for a grand jury in your court."

The county attorney shouted at the top of his voice that in his opinion the action of the court was probably inspired by state-house officials.

A Careless Habit

Don't buy a can of baking powder without knowing the exact weight of the contents—it's a careless habit and an expensive one.

Some baking powders are now put up in 12 oz. or 3/4 pound cans instead of 16 oz. or full pound cans as formerly. Your eye may not detect the difference in the size of the can—so always look at the label—know that you are getting 16 oz. or a full pound when you want it.

Remember when you buy Calumet Baking Powder you get 16 oz. — a full pound. The one pound size of Calumet has never been reduced.

That's one reason millions of housewives prefer and use Calumet. They also know that it produces pure, sweet and wholesome foods.

Calumet is the largest selling brand in the world — buy it — try it.

Who Supports The Aged?

Statistics show that five persons out of six, and some claim as many as six out of every seven persons are dependent on someone for their care and keep in old age. Look around you and you can see evidence of this. Have you ever tried to find out why this is true? You think it will not mean you. We hope it will not. Have you a fund for your old age now, or one started which you persist in growing to accomplish this? We can help you start such a fund, and make it grow while you sleep.

It is common knowledge which has found expression in many quaint proverbs that any fool can make money, but only a wise man can save it. In which class do you come? How have you saved it? How much have you saved? How are you now saving it from possible loss, and keeping it growing in amount?

The man does not live who cannot save at least a certain percentage of his earnings if he WILLS to do so. It is just a matter of WILL. Every man should have a budget of probable income, and proposed expenditures, which should contemplate a saving of as near 25 percent of his earnings as possible. Merely saving them is not enough. Idle money is a bait for sharpers looking for victims, holding out alluring promises and overdrawn pictures of quick riches. A man in the salaried laborer or earning class does not have the time, experience nor opportunity to study securities, nor learn how or where to make their earnings save money.

It is for this class that THE HOME BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF ADA was organized. We make it our business to invest your money along with others, without expense to you, take you into our organization on an equality with ourselves and give your money the same dividends as ourselves. These grow at rates running from 6 percent to 10 percent per annum compounded in six months' periods. The first thing you know your money, which works while you sleep, has become a handsome fund either for buying some needed home, engaging in some business you may have in mind, or for an old age fund.

COURT TO FOCUS ATTENTION UPON DEATH MYSTERY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—The camera of the district attorney's office was turned to Hollywood today to snap all the information that can be obtained from motion picture directors, actors, producers and others in order to find a solution for the mystery-drama of the slaying of a week ago last night of William Desmond Taylor, noted director.

District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, it was announced, turned the trial of Mrs. Madalyn Obenchain, over to his chief deputy, and devoted his attention to the motion picture case.

Complex angles of acts that occurred since the killing which investigators say give strong indication of being connected with the shooting itself were played under close scrutiny.

The acts include recovery of a packet of letters, some written by Mabel Normand, the last person known to the police to have been with Taylor. This packet was found late yesterday at the Taylor house in a book in a second story closet.

According to Mabel Normand, Taylor kept the letters in a drawer of his desk on the first floor.

CROWD EXPECTED FOR FIGHT HERE ON FEBRUARY 14

Preparations are being made to handle a full house at the American Legion boxing event on Tuesday night of next week, the principal number of which will be a six-round bout between Arch Cooper, Ada champion, and "Hack" Heaglebeck, Shawnee.

The show will be held in the McSwain theatre and the balcony has been reserved as a special section for high school and college students who wish to attend. Ladies will be especially invited and arrangements made for their accommodation. Ringside seats will be on the stage.

An especially attractive array of preliminaries is scheduled to lead up to the Cooper-Heaglebeck affair. These include a four round bantamweight match between Johnny Baker and Sallor Adair, who fought to a draw in the recent sport carnival here, and a four round event between Slugger Harris, Byars, and Jack Dempsey Sparks, middleweights. Sparks is Cooper's trainer.

Another battle royal, featuring five husky negroes, will be a heavy-weight attraction, winner take all. "One Round Brown, Oklahoma City, will battle Young Jack Johnson, colored, of Shawnee for four rounds. Charles Johnson, athletic manager of the Legion, announced at noon today.

Lions Visit Latta. Several of the members of the Lions Club and their wives motored to Latta school this noon and enjoyed a delightful luncheon. The whole bunch, including the teachers, pupils and the visitors, lined up and has "their picture took."

Immediately after the luncheon the visitors were escorted to the large auditorium where the members of the high school student body entertained with a home talent play, "The Prodigal Came Home." The rendering of this stage production was well done, and the students not only showed considerable historic talent, but also thorough training.

Both visitors and guests profited by the acquaintance. The Latta school has only one more week, the school closing early as a result of beginning early last summer.

MILE OF ROAD A DAY OVER STATE

Oklahoma Advancing Her Hard-Surface Highway Rapidly Now.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 9.—Approximately one mile of hard-surfaced road is being laid in Oklahoma each working day, according to Ernest S. Alderman, state engineer. All parts of the state are involved in this road building program except approximately the western third, he added, this being due to the fact that climatic conditions in the latter portion are such as to make hard-surfaced roads not so necessary as in the eastern and central portions of the state.

More than 1,000 cars of stone and gravel are used monthly in the construction of hard-surfaced roads in the state, Mr. Alderman said. This material costs on an average approximately $50 a car while the freight charges will average $75 a car, he pointed out in explaining the cost of road improvement. Some qualities of stone or stone products are shipped at the rate of $125 a car while others fall considerably below the average of $75. Mr. Alderman continued. Most of the materials used in the construction of hard-surfaced roads in Oklahoma are obtained within the borders of the state, he said.

Rainfall is Element

Mr. Alderman declared that a study of the road building program of the hard-surfaced roads are the assessed valuation of the various localities and the rainfall record in each. Wealthy communities naturally have good roads, he said, but in a number of places where the assessed valuation is comparatively low there has been much road activity due to the fact that heavy rainfall makes dirt roads inadequate. This rainfall is heaviest in the eastern part of the state, and for this reason several road bond issues have been carried easily in east-side localities which have a relatively low valuation assessment, Mr. Alderman said.

Some of the best roads in Oklahoma are found in the dry portions of the western part of the state, he declared. These are plain dirt roads. Because the rainfall is light there is no material need for hard-surfacing, he added, the greatest need in the western part of the state being small bridges.

Gravel is the most common material used in the construction of hard-surfaced roads in the state, Mr. Alderman said. Some concrete is used. Gravel is particularly adapted to all agricultural sections, he explained. The loads hauled over the roads in these sections are not so heavy as in the oil field districts and gravel stands up well under the wear given them. With moderate maintenance costs gravel roads are giving good service in these parts of the state, Mr. Alderman said. Heavier construction is used in the oil fields where the loads are more weighty.

Police Watch Port To Prevent Escape Of Missing Butler

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—Police authorities here are keeping a close track on steamer passengers leaving this port to frustrate, they said, an attempt on the part of Sands, former butler of William Desmond Taylor, the murdered Los Angeles film director, to escape across the Pacific. Authorities believed he may attempt to get to the far east by steamer from San Francisco.

There has been no development in the search for a reputed brother of Sands, reported to have moved from Los Angeles to San Rafael, Calif., recently.

A door knob and an orange are both round

—But there are good reasons for preferring the orange to eat.

There are other corn flakes that look somewhat like Post Toasties, but people who know quality choose Post Toasties by the test of taste and appetite.

These delicious flakes of toasted corn are thicker and crisper (they're made by a special patented process) and they don't mush-down when cream or milk is added.

And such wonderful flavor! There's the richness of that splendid corn "taste" made perfect and seasoned just right—and the crispness continues to the last delightful bit.

That's why the name of Post Toasties has so long been a household word—and that's why you so quickly meet imitations with the answer—

Insist on the name, get the YELLOW and RED package, and you're right
